

Composite Engineer

Greene, Tweed & Co., a world-class provider of innovative product and business solutions and experts in high performance materials and engineering design, currently has openings for Composite Design Engineers located in our Corporate Headquarters in Kulpville, PA.

Responsible for design, support/coordination of applications, project management, technical assistance and presentations to customers, and manufacturing support of plastics and composites activities for the Defense market. Requires BS in Engineering (preferably Mechanical), 3-8 years in plastics or composite design/manufacturing, & 3-D modeling experience (Solidworks). Knowledge of FEA systems, plastic and composite materials & mfg. processes a must. On-site customer contact through Key Account Management approach required. Must be a U.S. citizen/permanent resident (ITAR).

We offer a competitive salary commensurate with background and experience, 401(k) savings plan and tuition reimbursement. Send resume with salary history to: afick@gtweed.com or Greene, Tweed & Co., Human Resources, P.O. Box 305, Kulpville, PA 19443, include ad #3700.

Inspired Employees Delighting Customers
We are an equal opportunity employer.